GOOSE REGAINS THE LEAD

W. H. BAKER'S JOCKEY PILOTS THREE WIN-NERS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Society People Attracted to Fair Grounds in Great Numbers by Race for Gentlemen Riders-Old Ben Scores for His New Owner.

New Orleans, La., February 11.—Jockey R, Goose regained the lead for riding honors which he lost yesterday to W. Lilley when he landed three of his mounts winners this afternooi. On two occasions his success was due to masterly and energetic horsemanship. In the other instance, victory was achieved in easy style. The Fair Grounds presented today a gada appearance with its big throng of spectators. Society folks were out in full force, the magnet attracting them being the vace for gentlemen riders. This event aroused keen interest and resulted in a spectacular and closely run contest, the winner turning up in Rodondo, on which Mr. Allen Mehle had the mount. There was some confusion before the race on account of the tardiness of the scheduled riders to put in appearance. Thirteen were originally entered, but for a while it seemed as if only four would go to the post. Four others put in an appearance later and the field of eight started fifteen minutes later than the usual post time. The winning rider was given an ovation on his return to the scales. The association presented him with a handsome silver cup. The mile allowance race was the best offering of the day, Old Ben, which W. H. Baker recently acquired from W. G. Yanke, winning in easy fashion, it made a double for the Bakers. Coy having won the previous race. This filly was extremely lucky to score and her victory was in the main due to the rousing ride that Goose gave her. Birka furnished the greatest contention and would have won in another stride. York Lad upset a good thing when he got up in the last stride to beat Screnata in the second race.

Jockey Malter was suspended for the rest of the needing by starter bade for incompetency.

W. T. ANDERSON'S RACING STRING.

New York, February 11.—Probably the largest two-year-old in the country is housed in the barn of W. T. Anderson at Gravesend. This is a bay filly by Voter—Prinzessin, and, therefore, a half sister to Royal Message. She is fully sixteen hands high and weighs close to 1,100 pannds. Her weight is so evenly distributed that when fined down she will size up as a magnificent individual. A Trap Rock filly in the same stable out of the dam of Goldy will probably prove to be a youngster out of the ordinary, if size, substance and breeding count. Others in the barn are Robert L., Fascinating, Star Gift and Royal Message. In addition there are a few prospects that have shown their owners in their trials that they are worth keeping. One is a three-year-old bay colt by Peep o'Day—Sweet Marjorle, consequently a half brother to Fascinating; a big, upstanding bay colt, three years old, by Peep o'Day—Gold Lady that looks a race horse all over; a four-year-old by Woolsthorpe—Carlotta C. named Joe James, and a four-year-old by Peep o'Day named Cy Merrick. Having leased the running qualities of some and disposed outright of others which he bred, A. L. Aste will have but two oungsters to carry his colors this season. They are now being handled at the Lexington course in Kentucky by Cy Hughes. One is a half brother to Marjorle A., while the other is a filly out of an untried mare. Departing from the method he pursued formerly in mating all his mares to Jack Point, the latter horse served but two of the dozen which Mr. Aste has located at the breeding farm of J. S. Barbee.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

D. Raymond of Montreal reports the arrival of a colt foal by Malamont—Gargle. Malamont is a son of the celebrated Flying Fox.

Andrew Miller's Roamer, the champion of last season, will be shipped from New York to Louis-season, will be shipped from New York to Louis-the for the Kentucky Handleap, to be run at Bouglas Park this spring. The son of Knight Errant has been doing marvellously well at Graves-end in his preliminary work in preparation for active training. He is only one of many good horses that will make the trip from New York to Ken-tucky.

INDIANA RACING BILL PASSES SENATE.

Only Ten Votes Registered Against Measure for State Commission Control, with Pari-Mutuels.

Indianapolis, Ind., February 11.—Pari-mutuel betting on horse racing in Indiana was approved today by the state senate, which passed a bill to create a racing commission to regulate the betting and supervise horse racing in the state. Only ten votes were registered against the measure, which will now go to the house. There are fifty senators.

The bill was introduced by Senator Hirsch of Cannelton. It was prepared by A. F., Knotts, former mayor of Hammond. It provides that for the first four years the commission shall consist of Sterling Holt, of Indianapolis: Charles Anthony, of Muncie: and C. R. Duffin, of Terre Haute. The commissioners shall receive $600 a year, and have authority to appoint a secretary to receive $1,200 annually.

Mr. Knotts recently gave out a brief in behalf of the bill containing the following explanation:
Persons or associations desiring the privileges conferred by this bill must apply and obtain a license, thus placing themselves absolutely under the purisdiction and control of the state racing commission.

It creates and names a state racing commission.

It creates and names a state racing commission to serve for two years whose successors, to be appointed by the governor, shall thereafter serve for four.

The salaries of members of the commission and the secretary, whom they may appoint, are fixed by the bill to be paid out of license fees only. The bill will restore racing to its former popularity and respectability, as it has done in every country and state having similar laws.

Its immediate effect will be to tremendously encourage breeding of theroughbreds and standard-bred horses for which Indiana is admirably adapted.

It in no wise affects existing statutes in their application to poolselling, bookmaking, poolrooms, etc., other than as specifically privided for.

It provides without cost to the state a thoroughly competent commission to investigate and report on all matters pertaining to breeding, racing and all economic and social questions relating thereto.

It eliminates bookmaking and pool-box operations, the professional gambler and the pool seller.

The following names were signed to the brieffered Terry, managing editor Western Horseman; George M. Galangan, editor Western Horseman; George M. Galangan, editor Western Horseman; George M. Galangan, editor Western Horseman; George M. Holt, capitalist; George R. Marott, merchant and capitalist; D. J. ### KING WORTH WINS HANDICAP AT JUAREZ. Odds-On Favorite Has Little Trouble in Scoring-Seneca Beats Mimorioso a Nose.

El Paso, Tex., February 11.—The six-furlough andicap which served as today's chief racing altraction at Juarez resulted in an easy victory for Ray Egan's King Worth, the favorite, Kootenay, making his first start of the season here following his recent arrival from California, had speed enough to force a fast early pace, but King Worth ran with him all the way and when the Ben Strome gelding's lack of condition asserted itself, the Egan sprinter went on to an easy victory over 0thello. In the third race Seneca turned the tables on Mimorioso by a nose, Far Away, a first-time starter from the Newman stable, won the two-year-oid race. He is a gelding by Abe Frank—Burnie Burton, Manganese, making his first start of the season, went to the post fit and scored in the second as a even money favorite. Art Rick was an easy winner in the fifth, and Linbrook beat the well backed Curlicue in the sixth.

A small crowd was on hand, but speculation was heavy, and the layers reported considerable losses, Presiding Steward Charles F, Price intends to leave for his annual vacation at Naples, Fla., about March I. He will be a guest of George M, Hendrie to enjoy the fishing as has been his custom for several years.

BREEDING BUREAU PROVING ITS VALUE.

New York, February 11.—One only has to listen to John F. Ryan telling his actual experience in buying horses for the English and French governments to realize that the thoroughbred is an actual necessity in times of peace and of inestimable value in war times.

buying horses for the English and French governments to realize that the thoroughbred is an actual necessity in times of peace and of inestimable value in war times.

While the bureau is practically in its swaddling clothes, it has demonstrated its value decisively in the number and quality of horses it has supplied the allies. Being only seven years old, only the first two crops of horses could be sent to Europe, as no horse has been shipped away that is less than five years old, this being the limit according to contracts. Next May, however, 2,000 more half thoroughbreds will be shipped and every one from Cape Breton and British Columbia.

"The war had not been declared more than twenty-four hours," said Mr. Ryan, "before the Canadian bureau volunteered its service to the British war office and the Canadian government, and long before the buyers and inspectors were sent here from Europe we had completed the census of Canada and we showed them upon their arrival where they could locate 42,600 horses fit for army service. These were picked up from coast to coast between Cape Breton and British Columbia.

"Gen, Sir Frederick Benson was in charge of the British commissions," continued Mr. Ryan, "and his first consignment sent from Canada was 7,600 horses, and 25,000 have since been shipped. The great trouble experienced was getting ships to carry them to England and France, and I may say that ship owners have taken advantage of the demand, for the rates have been almost quadrupled, which has taken the glow off the profits, as the contracts call for delivery in Europe. This has hampered the delivery considerably and thousands of horses are today herded in Canada and the United States awaiting removal.

"Canada has been pretty well cleaned up for horses, and I am now purchasing in this country and shipping from American ports. I cannot estimate a limit to the horses that can be purchased that would just pass muster in emergency cases, but it is safe to say that the United States could furnish in the neighborhood of ses to the war. These have averaged $165 a head, but by the time they are landed in Europe they have cost an additional $100, which brings up the cost to $265 for every horse shipped.

"It is the future that will attract attention after peace is deciared," concluded Mr. Ryan. "It is my opinion that European countries will be buying horses for two years at the least after the war is ended. These horses will be sent to Engiand: In fact, they are as good as ordered, and the majority will be officers' mounts, on account of their being half thoroughbreds and some of them three-quarters.

"This war has already shown the value of thoroughbred blood. Gen. Benson declares that all peace orders hereafter will call for half thoroughbred horses for the English army. Of course, in war times any horse will pass that has the size and quality and is sound, but hereafter England will ask for every mount to be selected and part thoroughbred."

GRAB BAG HANDICAP TO BE RENEWED.

New York, February 11.—Frank J. Bryan, secretary of the Piping Rock Racing Association, has issued the subscription blanks for a renewal of the Grab Bag Handicap at the Locust Valley course. This race was won last year by Harry Payne Whitney's Prince Henry, It is a four-and-a-half furlong dash and its conditions make it one of the best sporting contests of the senson, it being constructed along sweepstakes lines. The conditions are: "By subscription of $25 each by March 1, 1915, when the subscription shall close. A further liability of $50 each if not declared by April 15, 1915. Those not declared by May 15, 1915, to pay $100 additional, which will entitle them to start without further cost. The winner to receive the total amount of the subscriptions. Starters to run in the name and colors of the subscribers, but they may be owned in partnership, or leased by a subscriber. Weights to be announced five days before the day set for the running of the race. About four and a half furlongs."

The race being a private sweepstakes no penalty is incurred by the winner under the rules of racing.

One of the most desperately fought battles of the present war, marked by ferocious bayonet charges, described as without precedent, is in progress in the Carpathian mountains, according to reports from Petrograd. The scene of this struggle is in Galleia, south of Sanok. On the outcome depends control of the mountain passes leading to the plains of Hungary. The correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt in the Carpathians, telegraphs that the offensive spirit of the Russian forces appears to have been broken, and that they are contenting themselves with a defense by artillery against the German attack. The Austrians and the Germans are gaining ground steadily, according to this correspondent. Russia's daily war bill was estimated at $7,000,000 in the discussion which preceded the adoption of the budget. In the debate upon the best means of stimulating industries and business generally, M. Markoff, one of the deputies of the right, proposed the expulsion from the company of all Teutons and the donation of their property to relieve the families of war victims. Petrograd says that despite terrific losses in the battle of Koziowa, the Germans and Austrians are continuing their attacks upon the Russian positions there. The conflict has been in progress for eighty hours with no decision. Dispatches from Lemberg deciare that the ferocity of the German assaults exceeds even that shown in the battle of Borjinow. The London News Cologne correspondent telegraphs he has learned that the population of Insterburg, East Prussia, has been advised by the military authorities to leave the town. The evacuation of Lodg by the Germans has been confirmed, according to a Petrograd dispatch to Paris, which states that stores, offices, commissariat and transports are being removed hastily to Kalisz. Bringing postive assurance that Italy intends to remain neutral, former Mayor Ernesto Nathan of Rome arrived at New York. He comes as commissioner general for Italy for the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

"The recent public utterances in Germany give no reason to suppose that the purpose in view will be promoted by adopting the course suggested," was the answer of Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, to a question in the house of commons asking if, with a view to ending the terrible loss of life in the war, Great Britain was prepared to declare publicly the basis whereon the allies were willing to discuss terms of peace. The members of the house greeted Sir Edward's answer with cheers.

The American steamer Dacia finally sailed from Norfolk with its cargo of cotton for Germany, via Rotterdam. Great Britain has threatened to seize the ship, questioning the genuineness of the transfer from German to American register. It is generally expected that a British cruiser will capture the Dacia before it arrives in European waters and that the case will be fought out in a prize court.

"Bulgaria has decided to maintain a strict and loyal neutrality," said Premier Radoslavoff at a meeting with his parliamentary adherents at which the German loan to Bulgaria was discussed. The premier said that the military and financial preparations of the country were adequate for any eventuality, but that the government was confident the friendly feelings of the powers toward Bulgaria would result to its advantage.

The United States government has sent a note to Great Britain making friendly observations on the use by British ships of neutral flags and at the same time dispatched a communication to Germany inquiring what steps would be taken by German naval commanders to verify the identity of ships dying neutral flags in the recently proclaimed zones of war around England and Ireland.

Administration forces were formed anew to con-of war around England and Ireland.

Administration forces were formed anew to continue the fight over the ship bill at a conference of President Wilson, Senators Fletcher and Simmons and Representative Kitchin. It was decided to stand behind Senator Gore's substitute for the bill pending in the senate, a vote on which has been staved off by a Republican filibuster.

The possibility of a British blockade of the German coast was voiced in the house of commons by Premier Asquith. The premier said that the British government is considering drastic measures to paralyze the small remnant of German trade as a result of the "flagrant breaches of the rules of international warfare" by Germany.

The United States has warned Great Britain

ternational warfare" by Germany.

The United States has warned Great Britain that general use of the American flag by British vessels will be viewed with grave concern. It also has informed Germany that destruction of any American vessel in the newly prescribed war zone will lead to serious complications.

The Manna islands in American Samoa, comprising the islands of Manna, Ofu, Olosengta and Tanhave been swept by a hurricane. Not a house is standing. No deaths have been reported, but the populace lost everything. The food situation is serious and help is needed.

The Chinese government has pardoned Dr. Sun

The Chinese government has pardoned Dr. Sun Yat Sen, father of the revolution which resulted in making China 2 republic, and other rebel leaders, and has offered them high official positions if they are willing to return and declare their loyalty to the government.

The rulers of the three Scandinavian kingdoms will hold another conference, this time on the question of floating mines, Germany's declaration of a sea war zone and the British admiralty's views as to the use of neutral flags.

German financiers have been summoned to a conference in Berlin with the finance minister, who considers that a new loan of $1,250,000,000 is required for the continuation of the war, says a disfrom Amsterdam.

The British foreign office after an inquiry has decided that the cargo of the American steamship Wilhelmina may go through a prize court. The ship may dapart from Falmouth as soon as the cargo dallochers. Duval West, former United States district attor-ey at San Antonio, Tex., has been selected to go o Mexico as the personal representative of Presi-ent Wilson.

A bill forbidding employment for wages of children under fourteen years old was passed by the Alabama house. It now goes to the senate,
